In 100 words or less, briefly describe the mission and vision of your proposed school	Cedar River Academy's (CRA's) mission is to establish and continuously improve schools that practice a progressive student-centered constructionist education model for all children, with a special emphasis on students from low income environments. CRA will continually measure, demonstrate, and report the effectiveness of student-centered, experience and performance-based education. CRA will increase student retention rates, raise student academic performance, increase the rate of college readiness, demonstrate the closure of the performance gap for disadvantaged students, better prepare students for 21 st century life, and freely share CRA experience with educators and the public.
